

Musician-in-Residence Application

Thank you for your interest in applying for the Grand Stafford's Musician-in-Residence program. Below is information regarding the Grand Stafford Theater, our Musician-in-Residence program and the application.

Fall 2015 Grand Stafford Musician-in-Residence Program

Application Deadline: September 30, 2015

The selected artist will receive eight weeks of personal and professional development including but not limited to: film material for promotion, marketing and accounting training, opening and headliner opportunities, and introduction to our Central Texas Music network. Applications are open to all artists working in a variety of genres, with a particular focus and interest in community-based development.

The goal of the Grand Stafford Theater is to create a hub for local artistic endeavors that engage with the Bryan/ College Station community. Thus, our Musician-in-Residence program aims to develop musicians locally.
